Jorgenson, Mary

Mary Jorgenson, 65, passed away on Friday, April 17, 2009, at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Mary was born in Neenah on Oct. 7, 1943, daughter of the late William and Ione (Radder) Jorgenson. Over the years she was employed by Zwicker's, Valley Packaging, and most recently, Outlook Graphics. She will be remembered as a devoted mother and grandmother, and for her love of puzzles, crafts, and shopping.

Mary is survived by a daughter: Ronda Balazs of Appleton; two sons: John Balazs of Appleton and Paul (Doreen) Balazs of New Holstein; five grandchildren: Michael Voigt, Brandon Balazs, Ronald Balazs, Perry Balazs, and Hailey Lingnofski; four brothers and sisters: Jeanne Miller of Appleton, Barbara (Everett) Sachs of Menasha, Peggy (Jim) Natrop of Kaukauna, and Jim Jorgenson of Little Chute; her former husband: Ronald Balazs and his wife Eileen "Cookie"; her special friend Judy Ziebell, as well as many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother Robert Jorgenson, a brother-in-law Perie Miller, and a nephew Perie Miller.

A memorial service for Mary will be held at 4 PM on Wednesday, April 22, 2009, at the Jansen Fargo Funeral Home in Kimberly. Friends may call at the funeral home on Wednesday from 2 PM until the time of the service.
